

General Terms and Conditions of Sale and Delivery

Thermoplast Technology P.S.A.

A. General provisions

- Whenever the General Terms and Conditions of Sale and Delivery refer to the Seller, this is understood to mean an entrepreneur - a company under the name Thermoplast Technology P.S.A., entitled to sell goods under these General Terms and Conditions.
- Whenever the General Terms and Conditions of Sale and Delivery refer to the Buyer, this is understood to mean the Buyer of the goods under these General Terms and Conditions, as indicated in the purchase order.
- Whenever the General Terms and Conditions of Sale and Delivery refer to the goods, this is understood to mean the products ordered by the Buyer together with packaging.
- In matters, which are not covered by these General Terms and Conditions, the generally applicable laws shall apply.

B. Price

- Prices are determined in accordance with the Seller's price list valid on the day of acceptance by the Seller the purchase order. The price includes the costs of packaging, which is not subject to return, necessary to properly secure and to transport the goods. The price will be increased by the value added tax in the amount applicable on the date of issue of the invoice, as well as other taxes and public dues, if the obligation to pay them arises from the law.
- Unless the Parties have agreed otherwise, the price includes, in addition to the costs of packaging, which is not subject to return, the costs of insurance to the place specified in the purchase order, unless the goods are collected by the Buyer's own transport.
- If, on the day of issue of the invoice, prices are higher than those on the day of acceptance by the Seller the purchase order, the Seller is entitled to increase the price of the unpaid part of the purchase order in proportion to the price increase. In such a case, the Buyer has the right to withdraw from the contract, with the reservation that the withdrawal is not allowed if the Seller declares his readiness not to increase the price in relation to the price agreed in the purchase order. If the change of prices takes place after the expiry of the deadline set in the purchase order and the Seller is in delay with the performance of the service for the Buyer, the price cannot be increased.
- The Seller shall have the right to increase the prices on a pro rata basis in case of an actual increase in electricity prices by more than 3%. The Seller shall also be entitled to increase the price in case of an actual increase in prices of plastic raw materials of more than 5% and steel of more than 10% (in relation to the last price adjustment), in which case this will result in an increase in price of at least 5% on a pro rata basis. On the other hand, in case of an actual decrease in the prices of plastic raw materials of more than 5% and steel of more than 10% (in relation to the last price adjustment), this will result in a pro rata decrease in prices by a maximum of 5%. Detailed rules for price changes may be specified in the sales contracts concluded between the Seller and the Buyer.
- In the event of any further increases in the prices of raw materials above the limits set out in the profile sales contracts following the most recent increases, the Seller shall be entitled to a subsequent increase, but not earlier than 30 days after the date of the last increase. The above rule also applies to a decrease in the prices of raw materials below the limits specified in the profile sales contracts. An analysis of the changes in the prices of raw materials will be carried out at least every month, based on the price indexes such as Chemorbis, Plastics Information Europe and others, which are published on the websites.
- The Seller reserves the right to unilaterally adjust the prices by the inflation index (increase in prices of consumer goods and services) announced by the Central Statistical Office (CSO) for the previous monthly period preceding the indexation. The price indexation does not constitute an amendment to the contract and does not require compliance with the requirements set out in the contract. In the event that the prices are expressed in Euro, the price indexation referred to above will take place according to the rules indicated above and on the basis of the Harmonized Index of Consumer Prices (HICP) for the "Euro area-19 countries" zone announced by Eurostat at the website www.https://ec.europa.eu/eurostat/databrowser/view/prc_hicp_manr/default/table?lang=en. Detailed principles of indexation are specified in the sales contracts concluded between the Seller and the Buyer.

C. Transport

- The transport and handling costs of the purchase order shall be borne by the buyer.
- If the goods are not collected due to the Buyer's fault, he will be charged for each subsequent transport of the same goods.

D. Payment

- Unless otherwise specified in the accepted purchase order or in a contract, the Buyer is obliged to pay 100% of the purchase order value prior to receipt of the goods. Payment can be made:
 - cash on delivery,
 - transfer to the Seller's bank account. In this case, the Buyer must provide a proof of payment upon receipt of the goods,
 - Bank fees in the country of the Seller shall be paid by the Seller and bank fees in the country of the Buyer as well as fees of all correspondent banks shall be paid by the Buyer.
- If the Buyer makes an advance payment, the Seller shall not be entitled to increase the price referred to in point B. The reservation of the Seller's right to increase the price shall not apply if the delay in delivery is due to reasons on the part of the Buyer or the Buyer fails to pay the rest of the price in accordance with the purchase order.
- The date of payment shall be the date of the credit of the Seller's bank account or the date of payment by cash on delivery.
- The form, date and place of payment are specified in the purchase order. If the above data are not specified in the purchase order, they will be marked in the invoice. The basis for payment is the purchase order, unless the Buyer requests the issue of an invoice before the expiry of the time of receipt or if the Seller issues an invoice after the expiry of the time of receipt.
- The seller reserves the right to charge statutory interests on delayed payments.

E. Delivery

- The goods are taken into the possession of the recipient in the commercial intercourse, which is the economic power to take possession of the goods (i.e. the right to dispose of the goods as the owner):
 - collecting the goods from the warehouse of the supplier EXW Libiąż and paying its price,
 - Other delivery terms and conditions require a separate agreement with the Seller and must be specified in writing in the contract or in the order confirmation.
- The place and date of receipt of the object of the purchase order are set in the purchase order. Special profiles are delivered according to individual agreements with the Buyer. In the case of purchase orders requiring an advance payment, the time of receipt will also depend on the Buyer's compliance with the terms of payment.
- The order is binding for the Seller only after confirmation of its execution date and prices by the Seller.
- It is allowed to complete the subject of the purchase order in a maximum of 3 batches. When delivering the product to the Buyer, the Seller shall be entitled to round up the ordered quantity to full packages, as well as to slightly change the quantities of the product to be shipped.
- The Buyer shall be obliged to receive the subject of the purchase order within the agreed deadline(s), and in particular to properly perform technical, quantitative and qualitative acceptance.
- The risk of damage or loss of the subject of the purchase order shall be transferred to the Buyer upon receipt and signing of the delivery note (WZ) or transport documents.
- In the event of failure to receipt the subject of the purchase order for reasons for which the Buyer is responsible, within 7 days from the date of the scheduled receipt date, the Buyer shall pay the storage costs from the date of the scheduled receipt date until the date of actual receipt of the subject of the purchase order in the following amount:
 - PLN 4,00 per day for a 120 x 0,80 EUR-pallet,
 - PLN 6,00 per day for a non-standard pallet (length over 1,5 m).
- The seller will issue a sales invoice as of the final date of receipt of the goods for the subject of the purchase order and the cost of storage of the subject of the purchase order.
- The transfer of the object of the purchase order to the Buyer is always based on the delivery note (WZ) or confirmed bills of lading. The signing of the above-mentioned documents by the Buyer without reservation means that the subject of the purchase order has been issued or delivered.

F. Complaints

- Quantitative complaints and the identification of evident defects of the goods, such as e.g. dimensions, mechanical damage, cracks, colour changes or deep scratches should be reported in writing within 30 days of receipt of the goods (the date of the document referred to in point E. 8. shall be decisive) under pain of forfeiture of all claims in this regard.
- Hidden defects of the goods should be reported to the Seller in writing within 7 days after the expiry of the time in which the Buyer, exercising due diligence, could have detected them, but no later than six months after the purchase of the product.
- Irrelevant defects of the goods that remain invisible after installation and during use, and which do not affect their value in use, such as scratches on the invisible sides of the profiles, are not subject to complaint.
- The Seller shall consider the complaint within 14 days from the date of its submission and within the same period he shall provide the Buyer with an answer on the way it has been handled.

G. Warranty for defects

The execution of the liability under the warranty for defects is excluded for the Seller's goods.

H. Claims for damages

The Seller's liability for losses incurred by the Buyer as a result of the receipt of a defective product is limited to the value of that product.

I. Cancellation of order

When the goods have been manufactured or are in the process of manufacture, the Buyer is obliged to collect them and pay the Seller's full amount due, and the cancellation of the purchase order is not allowed.

J. Technical conditions

- Upon receipt of a purchase order by the Seller, the Seller shall send the "Confirmation of Order Receipt" to the Buyer, and then after all purchase order details have been determined, the "Purchase Order Confirmation". No reservations on the part of the Buyer within one working day from the date of "Purchase Order Confirmation" shall constitute for the Seller a confirmation of the correctness of the trade conditions, quantity, dimensions and technical and functional parameters, as well as the colours of the ordered goods.
- The Seller reserves the right to introduce technical changes in the manufactured goods due to technical and technological progress, which at least do not reduce the usable value of the goods.

K. Completeness of the purchase order

- Any possible attachments to the purchase order will be an integral part of the purchase order.
- The Seller reserves the right to change the General Terms and Conditions of Sale. Any changes to General Terms and Conditions of Sale shall be effective as of the date of their publication on the Seller's website, with the reservation that the provisions of General Terms and Conditions of Sale effective as of the date of order confirmation shall apply to contracts concluded between the Parties.
- Any Terms and Conditions of Sale and Delivery not agreed to in writing by the Seller shall not be binding on the Seller.

L. Settlement of disputes

- Any possible disputes arising from the sales relationship shall be settled by a common court having jurisdiction over the Seller's registered office.
- The obligations arising from the General Terms and Conditions of Sale and Delivery of Thermoplast Technology P.S.A. shall be governed by the laws of Poland.

The above conditions shall enter into force on 1 January 2024. Upon entry into force of these Terms and Conditions, all other provisions of the Terms and Conditions of Sales and Delivery shall expire.
